Bersimis on the east. Some dialectic differences mark them off from the Montagnais of the Chicoutimi and Escoumins bands whose territories are also to be given in this report. In their industrial and social life as well as in dialect the Lake St. John Indians are to be classified as intermediate between the Montagnais of the coast and the Mistassini of the interior.